PRESIDENT
HOTEL

Athens

Contemporary and vibrant, yet deeply rooted in history and culture, Athens is a destination that simply has it all. A fascinating blend that will draw you to explore, the city offers a broad palette of experiences, gastronomic treasures, cultural icons, and a vivacious atmosphere that will entice your interest, and retain it.

The President style

A contemporary take in urban lodging, the characteristic decor offers a modern aesthetic with touches of luxury and elegant details. Our hospitality approach and sophisticated design are rooted in our history and will entice you, right upon entering our lobby.

Signature Hospitality

Clear lines, classic style, and carefully selected materials create the ambience of President Hotel. We have crafted every single aspect of your stay, so that you can experience your city escape in utter comfort.

You will be most advantageously located in proximity to all the Athenian points of interest and get to admire the staggering views from our Penthouse 21 Rooftop Pool Bar Restaurant, in fact, the highest hotel rooftop pool in Greece. President Hotel is designed to cover every single aspect of your stay, as it is fully equipped with a private parking, in-house dining options, a rooftop pool, and a collection of rooms that are airy, bright, and welcoming.

History

We go way back. The hotel was designed by Ioannis Vikelas in 1974 and opened its doors 4 years later. The space has been fully renovated since, but one thing remains unaltered: our dedication to offering unforgettable stays for almost half a century now.

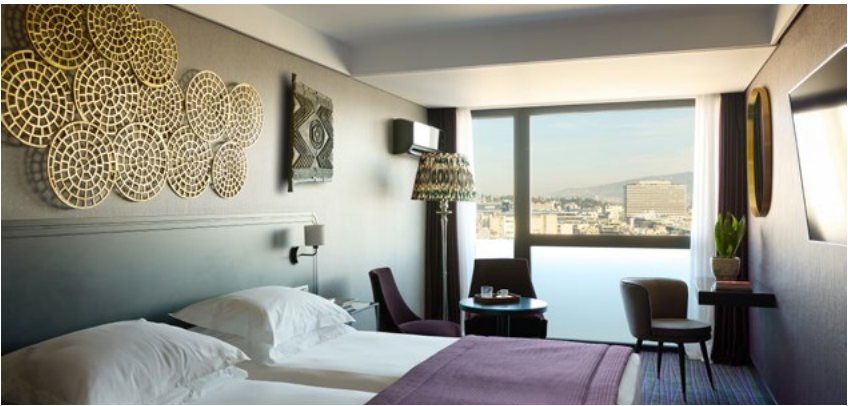

Comfort, guaranteed

Spacious and drenched in sunlight, our rooms bring a signature classic design that will relax you. Fully equipped with quality in-room amenities, depending on the room of your choice you will find options for up to 3 guests and you can opt for the stay category that suits your needs.
